FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 21, 2017

If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him; you know him, for he dwells with you, and will be in you. "I will not leave you desolate; I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more, but you will see me; because I live, you will live also. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. He who has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me; and he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." What makes us both fully human and truly like God? Is it not unconditional love which is unselfish, undying, and wholly directed to the good of others?

The love of God unites us in an unbreakable bond of fidelity, friendship, and community with others. Jesus loved his own until the very end of his passion and death on the cross (John 13:1).

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!

We are so blessed to have such a "good shepherd" as Father Joe and his chosen vocation as a priest and now our pastor at Annunciation and St. Francis.

Prayer for Priests

*O Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests.
Give them a deep faith
a bright and firm hope
and a burning love
which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life.
In their loneliness, comfort them
In their sorrows, strengthen them
In their frustrations, point out to them
that it is through suffering that the soul is purified,
and show them that they are needed by the Church,
they are needed by souls,
they are needed for the work of redemption.
O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you
because of their priestly ordination,
and because of the power which they have received
to carry on the work of Christ
in a world which needs them so much.
Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength,
and especially help them
to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.
Amen.*

(recited at the end of each Sunday Rosary before 10:30 mass)

MARRIAGE MINUTE

In this week's Gospel, Jesus prepares his disciples for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. For our marriages and families to thrive, we can prepare to celebrate Pentecost in two weeks and receive the joy Jesus desires us to have. The original novena (9 consecutive days of prayer for a specific intention) was when the Apostles and Mary gathered to pray from the Ascension of Jesus to Pentecost.

What if we did in our families what Mary and the Apostles did? Beginning May 25 (Ascension Thursday), pray the following prayer each day with your spouse and/or children for the Holy Spirit to unleash more joy at Pentecost.

"Come Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful. Enkindle in us the fire of your Divine Love. Send forth your Spirit, and we shall be recreated, and You shall renew the face of the Earth."

For additional ways to deepen your spousal or family prayer, visit www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com.
