TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 25, 2017

What does fear have to do with the kingdom of God? Fear is a powerful force. It can lead us to panic and flight or it can spur us to faith and action. The fear of God is the antidote to the fear of losing one's life. I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. O fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him have no want! Come, O sons, listen to me, I will teach you the fear of the Lord. (Psalm 34:4,9,11)

What is godly fear? It is reverence for the One who made us in love and who sustains us in mercy and kindness. The greatest injury or loss which we can experience is not physical but spiritual - the loss of one's soul to the power of hell. A healthy fear of God leads to spiritual maturity, wisdom and right judgment and it frees us from the tyranny of sinful pride, cowardice - especially in the face of evil, and spiritual deception. Do you trust in God's grace and mercy and submit to his word?

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. NO ADORATION IN JULY DUE TO HOLIDAY.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest,

Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests.

Give them a deep faith

a bright and firm hope

and a burning love

which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life.

In their loneliness, comfort them

In their sorrows, strengthen them

In their frustrations, point out to them

that it is through suffering that the soul is purified,

and show them that they are needed by the Church,

they are needed by souls,

they are needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests,

take to your heart your sons who are close to you

because of their priestly ordination, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much.

Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength,

and especially help them

to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.

Amen.

(recited at the end of each Sunday Rosary before 10:30 mass)

"Inquiries Welcome!"—Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

You may have a friend or family member who has never been baptized, or baptized in another Christian faith.
An acquaintance or coworker may have asked you questions about the Catholic Church. Someone may indicate to you they are searching for a sense of community, or a desire to hear more of the Good News of Jesus, the Gospel.

Anyone you know wanting to know more are encouraged and invited to inquire about the Catholic Christian Faith by contacting Father Joe for more information. An open informational meeting will be held in early September, look for the date and time.

Marriage Minute

Have you ever felt misunderstood by your spouse?

In this week's reading, the Prophet Jeremiah understands your pain. His cry to God is answered with recognition of his suffering and promise of God's presence during the trial. This is true for us as well, but there are also some practical steps we can take to come back together with our spouse:

- Pray to see the situation from your spouse's point of view.
- Clarify and make sure you are communicating what you intend.
- Focus on the value behind your different views instead of any one behavior.
- Learn the "dialogue" technique for writing about and sharing feelings.

Go deeper with these ideas by attending a marriage enrichment!

Eagle Scout Court of Honor

*The Eagle Scout Court of Honor was held June 17th. Eagles are Alex Lundry and Ryan Wessling, both parishioners and new Knights of Columbus. The other Eagle is Matt Winters who has been going through scouting with Alex and Ryan since elementary school.
Congratulations to these young men on this achievement!*
