TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 17, 2017

"Forgiving others is a sacred duty"

If God has shown mercy to us in granting us pardon for our sins, then we, in turn, must show mercy and forgiveness towards every person who has offended us. The willingness to forgive those who offend us is a sacred duty. If we expect God to pardon us and show us his mercy when we sin and disobey his commandments, then we must be willing to let go of any resentment, grievance, or ill-will we feel towards our neighbor. Jesus teaches us to pray daily for the grace and strength to forgive others in the same measure in which God has forgiven us (Matthew 6:12,14-15). If we do not show mercy and forgiveness to our fellow human beings, how can we expect God to forgive us in turn?

The Apostle James says that "judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy" (James 2:13)

"Lord Jesus, you have been kind and forgiving towards me. May I be merciful as you are merciful. Free me from all bitterness and resentment that I may truly forgive from the heart those who have caused me injury or grief."

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. NEXT ADORATION IS Sunday, October 1.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life. In their loneliness, comfort them In their sorrows, strengthen them In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church, they are needed by souls, they are needed for the work of redemption. O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordination, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much. Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

(recited at the end of each Sunday Rosary before 10:30 mass)

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?

The question posed to us in this weekend’s readings is especially applicable to married couples. When we are hurt by our spouse, it may be helpful to take some time to cool down, but extended time of venting, silent treatment or replaying the offense in our minds not only hurts our spouse but prevents us from healing, too!

Here are a few hints to avoid this:

- * While times are good, decide on a process for how you will handle hurts
* Consider a letter-writing process so you are less likely to say things you don't mean
* Commit to deal with hurts promptly so that they don't fester, and lovingly, so you don't cause more hurt

To learn a very practical skill for reconciling hurts, attend an Every Day in Love course!
