PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

APRIL 9, 2017

Psalms 24:3-10

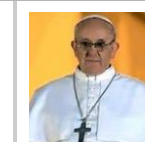

*Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?
He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.
He will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of his salvation.
Such is the generation of those who seek him, who see face of the God of Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!
Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory!*

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION...A BEAUTIFUL HOUR!

*"When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage; speak to Him about your spiritual life, gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness; welcome Him as warmly as possible, and behave outwardly in such a way that your actions may give proof to all of His Presence." ~St. Francis de Sales~
Many thanks to Fred and Paula Mader for the beautiful flowers!*

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation: MAY 7--11:30-5:30.

FIRST COMMUNION AT ANNUNCIATION

First Communion will be Sunday, April 23, 10:30 a.m. at Annunciation. Six children from Annunciation are receiving this sacrament. A reception will follow the mass and we invite all parishioners to share this special day with the first communicants. ALL LADIES OF ANNUNCIATION ARE ASKED TO BRING 1-2 DOZEN COOKIES FOR THE RECEPTION.

The Image of The Divine Mercy, which Our Lord requested to be solemnly blessed and venerated on this day, will be on display in our church. Pope John Paul II said that the image portrays the Risen Jesus Christ bringing Mercy to the whole world. Our Lord said “I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish”. (Diary 341, 48)

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
APRIL 23, 3pm, Annunciation
Celebration and Benediction
“JESUS I TRUST IN YOU”

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened”. (Diary 699) Our Lord made a great promise to all those souls who would go to Confession and then receive Him in Holy Communion on the Feast of His Mercy, now called Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Catholic Church.

Jesus promised that “The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.”(Diary 699) He went on to say “I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy.” (Diary 1109)

We want to encourage everyone to take advantage of this incredible promise and the additional Plenary Indulgence on this great Feast of Mercy “Divine Mercy Sunday.” We want you to benefit fully from these promises, and encourage your family and friends about them too and urge them to return to the practice of their faith!

Please take the time to visit with this Image of The Divine Mercy and venerate Jesus. For more information about Divine Mercy Sunday please take a holy card in the back of church and visit the website at www.TheDivineMercy.org

SUPPORTING PRIESTS & SEMINARIANS

Did you know your Easter offering is set aside for three important needs? The Archdiocese is blessed with 30 seminarians in formation for the priesthood. The Easter collection helps cover the significant cost of their education. It also funds the continuing education and spiritual formation of our priests. Finally, your contribution finances a necessary retirement fund to help support our beloved retired priests. Registered households will receive an important mailing about this appeal. Please use your Easter envelope to give generously to this collection for seminarians and priests, and please pray for them Thank you for your support of the Priesthood: Present & Future Easter appeal.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Praise, temptation to despair, indignant questioning from one who does not understand his mission, rejection, and eventually, death... While all of these descriptions certainly apply to our Lord's experience during Holy Week, they also apply to the lived experience of every married couple.

St. John Paul II said, “Married couples are a permanent reminder to the Church of what happened on the Cross.” Jesus called himself the Bridegroom, and His Bride was the Church, so we can imitate Christ in our marriages when we:

- Accept praise from others with humility and thanksgiving to God.
- Allow grace to strengthen our hope when we are tempted to despair over financial situations or the choices our children will make.
- Choose to courageously witness to the beauty of marriage even though friends or extended family may not understand our vocation.
- Forgive generously when we are hurt.

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

Religious Education

What a beautiful thing to see our children reciting the rosary before Mass! They will be doing this each Sunday following religious education at 10:10 am. They will also have the opportunity each week to receive the sacrament of reconciliation during religious education to help understand the importance of this sacrament. Thanks to Rita Janssen and all the wonderful CCD teachers who are teaching our children about our Catholic faith. And parents, why not join your kids for the rosary each week before mass? Maybe make some time to recite the rosary weekly together, what a blessing to both you and the child! Many thanks to Velma Rippetoe and Barb McIntyre and all others who help with leading the rosary each week before mass. Our precious children are the future of our Catholic Faith.

“Dear young people, let yourselves be taken over by the light of Christ, and spread that light wherever you are”

~St. Pope John Paul II~
