SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 31, 2017

The pearl of great price also tells us a similar lesson. Pearls in the ancient world came to represent the supremely valuable. Jesus remarked that one should not cast pearls before swine (Matthew 7:6). Why would a merchant sell everything for a peerless pearl? No doubt because he was attracted to what he thought was the greatest treasure he could possess. Discovering God's kingdom is like stumbling across hidden treasure or finding the one pearl of great price.

When we discover the kingdom of God we receive the greatest possible treasure- the Lord himself. Selling all that we have to obtain this incomparable treasure could mean many things - our friends, job, our "style of life", what we do with our free time. Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will & focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. In this parable what does the treasure of the kingdom refer to? It certainly refers to the kingdom of God in all its aspects

But in a special way, the Lord himself is the treasure we seek for. If the Almighty is your gold and your precious silver, then you will delight yourself in the Almighty (Job 22:22- 23). Is the Lord the treasure and delight of your heart?

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. AUGUST 6: 11:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

July Intentions of Pope Francis: Lapsed Christians

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

If you were a billionaire, but you were miserable in your marriage, you would be unhappy, wouldn't you? If we get our marriages right, the outside circumstances of our lives will not hit as deeply. This is because they are our life's work, our vocation. They are like the “Pearl of Great Price” in this weekend's Gospel, where the merchant trades all he has to buy it. Luckily for us, this means things such as:

- Giving a weekend and small financial gift for a marriage retreat
- Sacrificing a few hours a week to mentor the engaged
- Putting aside “our way” of doing things in order to choose what is best for our marriage

For ways to prioritize your Sacrament, check out www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
