TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 10, 2017

When you are offended, are you willing to put aside your own grievance and injury in order to help your brother's wound? The Lord Jesus wants to set us free from resentment, ill-will, and an unwillingness to forgive. The love of Christ both purifies and sets us free to do good to all - even those who cause us grief. The call to accountability for what we have done and have failed to do is inevitable and we can't escape it, both in this life and at the day of judgment when the Lord Jesus will return. But while we have the opportunity today, we must not give up on praying for those who cause us offense. With God's help we must seek to make every effort to win them with the grace and power of God's healing love and wisdom. Do you tolerate broken relationships or do you seek to repair them as God gives you the opportunity to mend and restore what is broken?

"Lord Jesus, make me an instrument of your healing love and peace. Give me wisdom and courage to bring your healing love and saving truth to those in need of healing and restoration."

What's the best way to repair a damaged relationship? Jesus offers his disciples spiritual freedom and power for restoring broken or injured relationships.

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. NEXT ADORATION IS Sunday, October 1.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Do you ever feel alone in your marriage or parenting?

In this week’s Gospel, Jesus reassures us that he is present where two gather in his name. In the stress of everyday life, we can feel isolated or disconnected from our spouse or God. One simple thing we can do to recover that connection and overcome the isolation is to simply pray with our spouse for our marriage and our children.

Praying together doesn’t guarantee our desired outcome, but it does always:

- Require vulnerability, and therefore bring us closer to our spouse
- Remind us that we have an all-powerful Father who only wants what is best for us
- Open us up to possibilities we did not see before

For tips on praying with your spouse, visit www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
