Annunciation Catholic Church St. Francis Catholic Church THE ASSENTION OF THE LORD SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER MAY 13, 2018

Jesus' departure and ascension was both an end and a beginning for his disciples. While it was the end of Jesus' physical presence with his beloved disciples, it marked the beginning of Jesus' presence with them in a new way. Jesus promised that he would be with them always to the end of time (Matthew 28:20). Now as the glorified and risen Lord and Savior, ascended to the right hand of the Father in heaven, Jesus promised to send them the Holy Spirit who would anoint them with power on the Feast of Pentecost, just as Jesus was anointed for his ministry at the River Jordan. When the Lord Jesus departed physically from the apostles, they were not left in sorrow or grief. Instead, they were filled with joy and with great anticipation for the coming of the Holy Spirit.

This is the great commission which the risen Christ gives to the whole church. All believers have been given a share in this task - to be heralds of the good news and ambassadors for Jesus Christ, the only savior of the world. We have not been left alone in this task, for the risen Lord works in and through us by the power of his Holy Spirit. Today we witness a new Pentecost as the Lord pours out his Holy Spirit upon his people to renew and strengthen the body of Christ and to equip it for effective ministry and mission world-wide. Do you witness to others the joy of the Gospel and the hope of the resurrection?

“Lord Jesus, through the gift of your Holy Spirit, you fill us with an indomitable spirit of praise and joy which no earthly trial can subdue. Fill me with your resurrection joy and help me to live a life of praise and thanksgiving for your glory. May I witness to those around me the joy of the Gospel and the reality of your great victory over sin and death.”

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

There are many ways to understand God's all-powerful love.

God loves us selflessly. He is not envious of any human possession or creation. God loves us so that we can love each other. Show selfless love to others with not only words, but selfless action.

God love us understandingly. God understands all of your thoughts and emotions. You are never alone if you strive to understand Him. Through prayer, you can build and your relationship with God

God loves us forgivingly. Through God's love, He sent His only son to show us forgiveness is possible. Reconciliation gives us a chance not only to be forgiven, but to renew and strengthen our love for God.

God loves us sacrificially. God sacrificed His own son to wipe away sin. Through His sacrificial love, God brings us into an intimate relationship with Him through salvation.

Are you ready to open your heart and receive God's love?

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Famous Last Words

Before ascending into heaven, Jesus told his disciples to "Go out into all the world and tell the Good News." As married couples, we have a very specific piece of good news to proclaim: that lifelong love is possible! In our current culture, this is a message that young people desperately need to hear. Since married love is meant to image Christ's love for the Church, our message is the very heart of the Gospel! Here are some simple ways to share it:

- Talk to your spouse about hurts between you rather than your friends.
- Invite other couples over to cultivate couple-friendship (even if it's pizza and the house isn't clean)!
- Volunteer together by mentoring the engaged or starting a parish marriage ministry.

Join in the Novena to the Holy Spirit as we prepare to celebrate Pentecost on May 20.

Novena Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Lord Jesus Christ, before ascending into heaven, you promised to send the Holy Spirit upon your Church, to complete the work you began in those whom you loved and called.

Renew in us, we pray, that same Holy Spirit.

Grant us the Spirit of Wisdom, that we may desire the imperishable over that which passes, the Spirit of Understanding, that our minds may be enlightened by the light of your divine truth, the Spirit of Right Counsel, that our choices may always be pleasing to you, the Spirit of Fortitude, that we may willingly bear the cross with you and overcome all obstacles to salvation, the Spirit of Knowledge, that we may overcome doubt and grow in faithfulness, the Spirit of Piety, that we may always find sweetness in our prayer and service, the Spirit of Wonder and Awe, that we may rightly fear your justice as we trust in your mercy.

Mark us, most loving Lord, with the gifts of true discipleship, that we may be animated by your Spirit, and recommit ourselves to the work of spreading the Good News of your Gospel.

You live and reign with the Father and the same Holy Spirit, on God, for ever and ever. Amen.
